

SC Works Workshops & Multiple Hiring Events scheduled for July

(Clemson, SC – July 1, 2015) – SC Works WorkLink will be holding multiple hiring events in July at the Anderson and Easley SC Works Center as well as the Pickens County Library.

Unidine and Baptist Easley Hospital will hold an event at the Easley SC Works Center located at 1774 Powdersville Road on Monday, July 6 from 9:30am-12:00pm. Positions available are food service and environmental service technicians. Interested job seekers can view the postings by going to jobs.scworks.org with job order #618584 & 606662. The hiring event flyer can be found at worklink.scworks.org/news/330/BEH-U070615.pdf.

Phillips Staffing will be hiring for TTI in Anderson and will hold an event at the Anderson SC Works Center located at 512 Michelin Blvd on Thursday, July 9 from 1pm-5pm. Various positions are available and interested job seekers can view them by going to jobs.scworks.org with job order #621314 and 621313. The hiring event flyer can be found at worklink.scworks.org/news/329/PhillipsStaffing070915.pdf.

The SC Works WorkLink monthly multi-employer hiring event will be held on Friday, July 17, 2015 at the Pickens County Library (304 Biltmore Rd, Easley, SC 29640) from 9:00am – 12:00pm. Employers will be on hand to screen applications and résumés, as well as talk with and interview job seekers for open positions. Information on confirmed employers for this event will be released soon on the SC Works WorkLink website.

All job seekers are encouraged to attend the hiring events professionally dressed with multiple copies of their résumé to present to the employers. There will not be a copier available to make copies of résumés. To make the registration process easier, please fill out the registration form ahead of time and bring to the hiring event with you. The form can be found at: worklink.scworks.org/news/193/Registration-Form.pdf.

SC Works WorkLink also holds free workshops available to the public at each of the Centers. If you are in need of an upgrade to your computer skills, interviewing skills, résumé and cover letter writing, or interested in learning more about our online job search database SC Works Online (jobs.scworks.org), make plans to attend one of the workshops today! The workshop schedule can be found online at worklink.scworks.org/news.php#328.

As of July 1, 2015, the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act of 2014 has gone into effect. For customers interested in additional career services or training scholarships, please contact one of the local SC Works Centers in Anderson, Easley, Clemson, or Seneca. Priority of service will be given to the following individuals: those receiving public assistance, low income, those that need to upgrade their math and reading skills, veterans, or those that have been laid off through no fault of their own. Other individuals may be eligible as well.

Come by one of the SC Works Centers in Anderson, Seneca, Clemson, or Easley prior to the hiring event to learn how to: land a job, write a résumé, ace an interview and discover training opportunities that will make you a stand out to an employer! For more information about the event or to find an SC Works Center near you, contact the SC Works Clemson office, at (864) 643-0071 (TTY:711) or email connect@worklinkweb.com.

If you are an employer and are interested in participating in one of our future events or need information on the services that SC Works can offer you, please contact Patty Manley at pmanley@worklinkweb.com or (864) 646-1515.
